

A Comforting Message

Jeremiah told the people about all of the great things God would do for them. What great things has God done for you?